PAKISTAN: Hope Among the Hurting

“He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the captives...” — Luke 4:18

Over the past few months, we have witnessed a powerful expression of God’s heart for the oppressed. Through obedience and generosity, two families have been released from slave labour at the Brick Kiln Factory in Pakistan—freed from debts that had bound their families for generations.

Because one of our faithful partners responded to God’s leading, Chang Ministries was able to pay the debts that kept these families enslaved. What felt impossible was undone in a moment—freedom was purchased, and a new chapter began.

Imagine being born into slavery—never knowing a world beyond the Brick Kiln Factory, carrying a debt you could never repay. For many families in Pakistan, this is not history or imagination—it is daily reality. For generations, families are born, live, and die within the walls of a Brick Kiln factory—never believing freedom could be theirs.

But God is a Redeemer!

Chang Ministries Global is committed to breaking generational bondage, restoring dignity, and opening the door to a future filled with hope. While two families are now free, there are more families waiting. More lives longing for release.

Together, through prayer and partnership, we can continue to see lives restored, God’s love made tangible and witness freedom unfold—one family at a time.

If you feel led, your generosity can help purchase freedom for another family whose children can now dream of a future beyond survival. Thank you for standing with us and being part of this redemptive work.

Together, we can rewrite someone's story—from bondage to freedom:

INDIA: Ministry Update of Hope Restored, Lives Transformed and the Gospel Advancing

“Go therefore and make disciples of all nations...” — Matthew 28:19–20

God continues to move powerfully throughout India. We rejoice as more believers publicly declare their faith through baptism. Healing meetings and discipleship gatherings are strengthening pastors and congregations, encouraging them to stand firm in their faith despite opposition and persecution. The Church is alive, the gospel is advancing, and lives are being transformed.

During a recent visit by Pastor Joseph to a tribal church in Turamalayapalm, the Holy Spirit moved in a powerful way. After the message, seven young people responded to God's call, giving their lives to Christ and being baptised that very day. What a beautiful picture of salvation and new beginnings in a remote community.

As new believers come to faith, there is a growing need for Telugu Bibles so they can be rooted in God's Word. We ask you to pray with us for provision as we continue discipling and equipping these new followers of Christ.

“Defend the weak and the fatherless; uphold the cause of the poor and the oppressed.” — Psalm 82:3

Across India, we continue to serve precious children who are full orphans, semi-orphans, or social orphans. Many have experienced the heartbreak of losing one or both parents at a very young age. Others come from situations where parents are unable—or unwilling—to care for them due to extreme poverty, addiction, or forced labour in brick kilns, poultry farms, or domestic work.

For these children, even the most basic needs—food, clothing, safety, education, and daily essentials—are often out of reach. And yet, despite their circumstances, they carry big dreams. They long to learn, to grow, and to build a future filled with hope—given the opportunity and loving support.

This was especially evident during the Christmas season. At the Children’s Home, the children received blankets as special Christmas gifts. Though simple, these blankets brought warmth, comfort, and security during the cooler nights—a tangible reminder that they are seen, valued, loved and cherished.

Alongside the children, we continue to care for widows who are often overlooked and isolated, reminding them that they are not forgotten and that they are deeply loved by God and His people.

Christmas celebrations were held across the region with around 600 people gathered to hear the Word of God. Including many young people who came together to give thanks and celebrate the birth of Jesus, rejoicing in God’s gift of salvation to mankind.

Join Us in Reaching the Unreached

As we look ahead, we invite you to continue walking with us in this mission. You can partner with us in three meaningful ways:

- Pray for the children, widows, pastors, and believers in India—that they remain strong, protected, and rooted in Christ.
- Give to help provide food, clothing, education, Bibles, and ongoing discipleship support.
- Share this work with others who may feel led to join in bringing hope and restoration.

Your compassion is helping to rewrite stories—bringing hope to the vulnerable, strengthening the Church, and spreading the light of Christ where it is needed most. All glory to God alone.

Thank you for standing with us in love, faith, and obedience to God's call.

Together, we can reach farther, love deeper,
and transform lives for the glory of God.
